

Passion 4 People Consulting, LLC Hires Jennifer Rosenthal as Partner
*Company Expands Capabilities into Executive and Permanent Search, Deepens Consulting Expertise

Mountain Lakes, NJ – July 13, 2023 – Passion 4 People Consulting (P4P), a women-owned boutique project consulting and staffing firm, announces that Jennifer Rosenthal is joining the company as Partner. Jennifer will expand the company’s executive search capacity and deepen its consulting services.

“I could not be more excited to have Jen join us,” says Founder Ina Rose. “I’ve known her for a long time. Not only is Jen a talented professional, she brings a remarkable wealth of expertise in search and consulting services. In addition, her commitment to delivering the highest-quality talent, diversity of industry experience and perspective on organizational talent needs will serve us and our clients well. With Jen on board, we will be able to meet a fuller range of our clients’ talent needs, from staffing to consulting to permanent executive search. I’m delighted to take P4P forward with her as Partner.”

“I’m thrilled to be rejoining Ina, Henry Hilbert and Kim Sgro and starting with the P4P team,” said Jennifer Rosenthal, Partner. “We share a mutual passion for serving clients and candidates at the highest level and this opportunity will allow me to leverage my entire career in executive search and consulting. I’m confident that we’ll do great things together.”

Jen is arriving at P4P Consulting from Leadership Capital Group (“LCG”), a premier global executive search firm, where she was Partner, Executive Search. Before joining LCG, Jennifer worked as a Principal for Rhodes Associates, a real estate-focused executive search firm, where she worked on senior level positions in finance and accounting, development/construction, leasing, asset management, marketing and human resources. Earlier in her career, Jennifer worked for Resources Global Professionals (“RGP”), a professional services firm, where she was responsible for business development, client service and launched RGP Search, an executive search business. Jennifer began her career at Bert Davis Executive Search, where she focused on publishing and media.

Having focused her career in executive search and consulting, Jen brings extensive experience in both areas, along with deep knowledge of talent needs and organizational challenges. Her expertise spans a broad range of sectors, including real estate, media, financial services, utilities, and consumer. She has worked with a wide variety of clients, from global public companies to privately-held organizations. Jennifer holds a M.A. from New York University and a B.A. from Roanoke College.

P4P has repeatedly been recognized as one of New Jersey's fastest growing companies. Since the company's inception, Founder Ina Rose has remained committed to giving 2% of revenue to charity, as chosen by the company's consultants and clients.
